2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)		The candidate is from the minority section of the population and is working for the upliftment of society. He is a social worker and is presently the Sabhadhipati of the Birbhum Zilla Parishad and has deep empathy and understanding of community needs of his constituency. He has strong foundation in listening to and understanding the diverse challenges faced by village people, which enables him to advocate for policies that address the needs of his constituency.
3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)		The candidate has become falsely impleaded in criminal proceedings, which are the result of political disturbances in the area in question. If elected, the candidate with his connection with the local people is confident of being successful in tiding over the political and social disturbances in the constituency and be an effective catalyst in bringing in social harmony.
